

Our private lives have been much improved by the NJ do not call laws. Please, do not knuckle under to pressure from select groups that have no consideration for our privacy. The NJ public needs you to protect them from invasive calls from unconscionable business entities. Your consideration of this and other requests is requested.